

WELCOME TO THE WELL

Together we are helping each other follow Jesus, while living together as witnesses to Jesus in Feasterville, Bucks County, Greater Philadelphia and the World.

Some things we do together that pursue this calling:

Liturgy: On Sundays we gather at 10:00am at our warehouse location in Feasterville to worship God and be formed by the Scriptures, prayer, communion and each other.

Education: We host regular formation classes that shape our heads, hearts and hands for our calling to bring the peace of Jesus to the world around us.

Community: We “do life together” through formal and informal get togethers.

Mission: We support each other as we are all called daily to serve our families, co-workers, neighbors and even our enemies.

Personal Disciplines: We engage in spiritual disciplines that help us know God and ourselves more fully. While we might do these alone, we need others to encourage us.

THIS WEEK'S LITURGY

Our liturgy is a central part of our spiritual journey. Sunday mornings are about weekly reorienting our lives - together and individually - around God's call for us to be His representatives in the places we live, work and play.

The word “liturgy” literally means, “the work of the people.” With this definition in mind, you’ll notice that our liturgy includes not only the leadership team, but also people from our community.
